

Treasury Department,

Bureau of the Mint,

Washington, D. C., July 12, 1899.

Baltimore Copper Smelting and Rolling Co.,

Keyser Building,

Baltimore, Maryland.

Gentlemen:

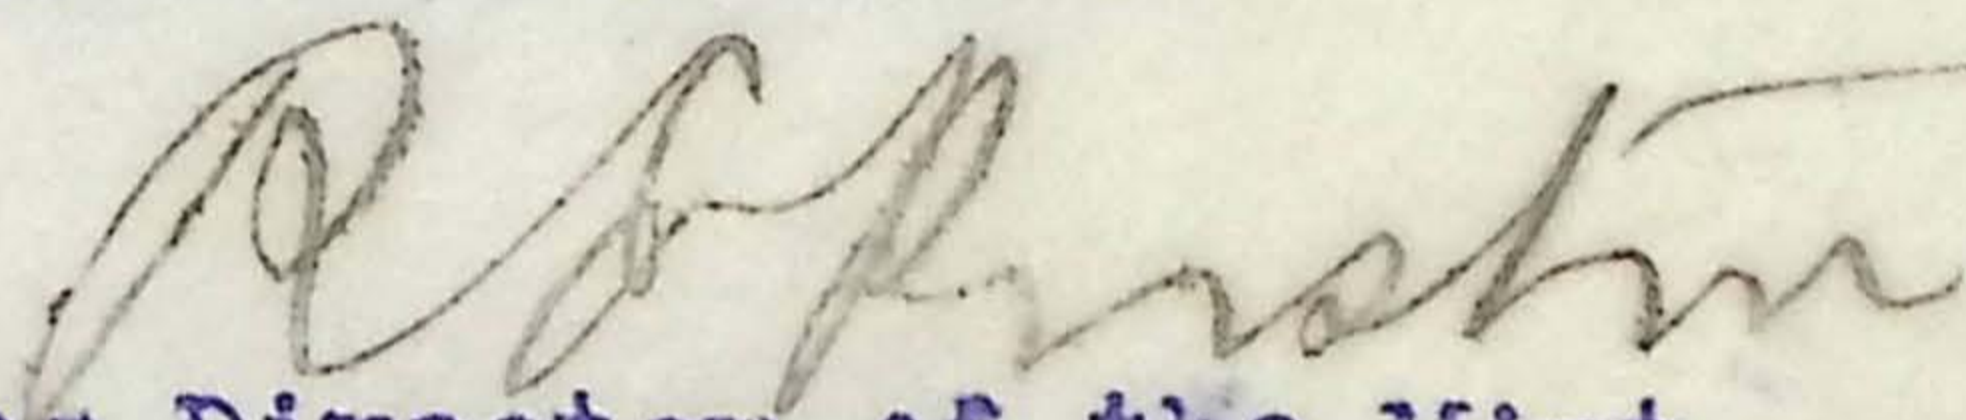

Your offer to furnish, free of all charges, ingot copper of best commercial quality, cast with thin bridges to the Mint of the United States at New Orleans and San Francisco at the following prices has been accepted.

Mint New Orleans 18¢ per pound

Mint San Francisco 18 1/2¢ per pound.

You will be duly advised as to shipments as required to be made.

Respectfully yours,

Acting Director of the Mint.

S

Treasury Department,
Bureau of the Mint,
Washington, D.C.

July 12, 1899.

Baltimore Copper Smelting and Rolling Co.,
Keyser Building,
Baltimore, Maryland.

Gentlemen:

Your offer to furnish free of all charges, ingot copper of best commercial quality, cast with thin bridges to the Mint of the United States at New Orleans and San Francisco at the following prices has been accepted.

Mint New Orleans18¢ per pound
Mint San Francisco18-1/2¢ per pound.

You will be duly advised as to shipments are required to be made.

Respectfully yours,
[Signature] Robert E. Preston
Acting Director of the Mint.

S